Volunteer drivers needed to help local folks get on the 'Road to Recovery' from cancer

The American Cancer Society's Road to Recovery program is having trouble staying on course in Wilkes County.

"This vital patient service program is in desperate need of volunteers who are willing to drive cancer patients to and from their lifesaving cancer treatments," said Summer Garrison, American Cancer Society Staff Partner.

"We're in desperate need of volunteers to drive our cancer patients to and from their treatments," Garrison said. "The reason we need so many volunteers is that many of the individuals who request this service may need to go to treatment every day for a week or up to a month."
