How do we know?

Faithful people do lose hope. They meet with hard times, seemingly hopeless times. One of the most consistent disciplines of faithful Christians over the years is that when they lose hope, they look to God's promises in Scripture. In faith, they trust that God will honor those promises, and they find hope in that.

Promises are not a simple thing to hold to. You don't simply flop open the Bible, look at whatever page it flops to, and claim as your own the first promise you come to. You don't put the promises on slips of paper, toss them into a hat, stick your hand into it, pull one out and say, 'that's mine!'. Not all promises apply to everyone or to every situation. It takes prayerful discernment to find out what promises were meant for us to take to heart for right now.

For example : Abraham was promised that his offspring would be a great nation through whom the whole world would be blessed. Every Jew, Christian and Muslim is in some way a part of or a result of that promise. But it is not a promise to you and your offspring the same way it was a promise to Abraham.

The prophet Isaiah gives us a promise about what God says (Isaiah 40:8):

"The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God stands forever."

The Scriptural promises are words from God, sent to give comfort to those who seek to live as God leads them to live. They weren't given an expiration date, nor are they just for the pious few.

In these times of tragedy let us all pull together in Jesus Christ to know that God is here – be still and know He is upon us....

COMMITTEE BULLETIN BOARD!

"Let's help the library move to their new home. We have offered the services of the Uptown Kiwanis Club, and the director of the move, Sheryl James, has accepted our offer. Our job will be to attach RFID (security) tags on each book. After we attach the "blank" RFID tag, the staff will transfer other data to the tag we have attached. After this treatment, the books will be packed in boxes to be transferred to the new (and beautiful) building. Our time of work will start 9 AM on the ground floor of the existing building. The work will continue, daily, until 5 PM. We can work as little or as much as we like on the
