Welcome to Augusta State! Proudly located in the heart of Georgia's second largest city, Augusta State University is a dynamic member of the University System of Georgia. As one of the South's premier residential universities, Augusta State both strengthens and draws strength from its community. It measures its success by the success of its students.

Here you will find dedicated faculty members, high expectations for students, and personal attention. We offer a wide range of undergraduate programs in the arts and sciences, in business administration, and in education. We offer graduate degrees in business, psychology, education, and public administration.

Attending our meeting were guests of the University, welcome back Dr. Andrew Auger - Chemistry & Physics, and Kathy Schofe & Judy Cooke Public Relations.

The Onions are Gone! The last few bags were donated to the Salvation Army Food Kitchen, thanks for a great fundraising season to all!
