Kiwanis of Uptown Augusta

Volume XXIX, Issue 45

Nov 17th 2009

This Week we Welcomed David McTier who discussed his family and a Fund Raising Opportunity

Whether portraits of people or wildlife, brilliantly hued paintings that faithfully capture each individual's personality and expression characterize the works of Jace McTier and Lucy

McTier: art that is found in many private and public collections across America. Lucy McTier had the honor of painting President Ronald Reagan and she and her family presented the portrait to him in the Oval Office in 1985.

Beginning in 1979, Lucy has painted hundreds of oil portraits and has passed on her expertise to her son, Jace.

This may be a great opportunity to commission a print that represents Kiwanis – a word or short phrase that describes what Kiwanis means to you and McTiers will create a representation For us – at that time we could partner with them to raise funds Which would supplement our fundraising efforts.
