This Week we Welcomed Skip Grkovik – N Augusta
Economic Development authority

New businesses and residential developments are expected to crop up as the final pieces of the Palmetto Parkway fall into place this year.

The parkway could open two months earlier than the Dec. 31 deadline.

Project manager Alan Wertz, of U.S. Constructors, shared the early progress with more than 30 members of the Greater North Augusta Chamber of Commerce as they toured the new section June 19.

The six-mile stretch from U.S. Highway 1 to I-20 at Exit 5 includes four new interchanges, a new connector road to U.S. Highway 25 and the realignment of 10 existing roads, Wertz said.

The project opens thousands of acres to potential development, said Skip Grkovik, director of economic and community development for North Augusta.
