Kiwanis of Uptown Augusta

Volume XXIX, Issue 39

October 13th 2009

This week welcomed Kevin Mack former NFL Referee and Downtown
Kiwanis Club Member

Every profession has its elite levels. For football refereeing, that is becoming an NFL referee. NFL referees are entrusted with overseeing a game where the most elite athletes on earth are paid tens of millions of dollars to compete at the top of their sport. Being an NFL ref is less a profession and more of a calling.

Millions of people are watching as you place your head under a canopy and spend 90 seconds watching video replays of a violent piece of athleticism that lasted less than two seconds. You have labored for years to reach this single moment. Now, as the referee of a Super Bowl, you have the Solomon-like power to make a decision that will influence the outcome of the world's greatest sports spectacle.

Door prize  $\frac{1}{2}$  and  $\frac{1}{2}$

Don't miss out on being prepared. Have your pin and be present for the drawing – this weeks pot rolled over again – the winner was present but not prepared –
Pot rolls over to $45

Meet the Youth Services Key Club and Builders Club - we are scheduling meetings at Westside HS and Tutt MS for members who wish to attend and help participate in their important projects and work.
