Volume XXIX, Issue 35

September 1st 2009

This week welcomed Danny McConnell of the Family Y

Kids and families come to The Family Y to do more than just work out, swim, play basketball or join an aerobics class. They come to our facilities because we offer a safe, caring place for them...a place where they belong.

Operating in Augusta, GA since 1858, The Family Y serves over 32,000 members in the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA). In 1997, the local YMCA and YWCA merged to form The Family Y and jump-started a period of tremendous growth. The Family Y is now an association of seven branches, two licensed childcare centers, and Camp Lakeside, an 88-acre campsite. The Family Y, in partnership with the Armed Services YMCA, also operates the BOSS (Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers) facility at Ft. Gordon.
